Look to this Day! For it is Life,
The very Life of Life.

In its brief course lie all the Verities
And Realities of your Existence;.....
For Yesterday is but a Dream,
And Tomorrow is only a Vision;
But Today well lived
Makes every Yesterday a Dream of Happiness,
And every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope.
Look well therefore to this Day!

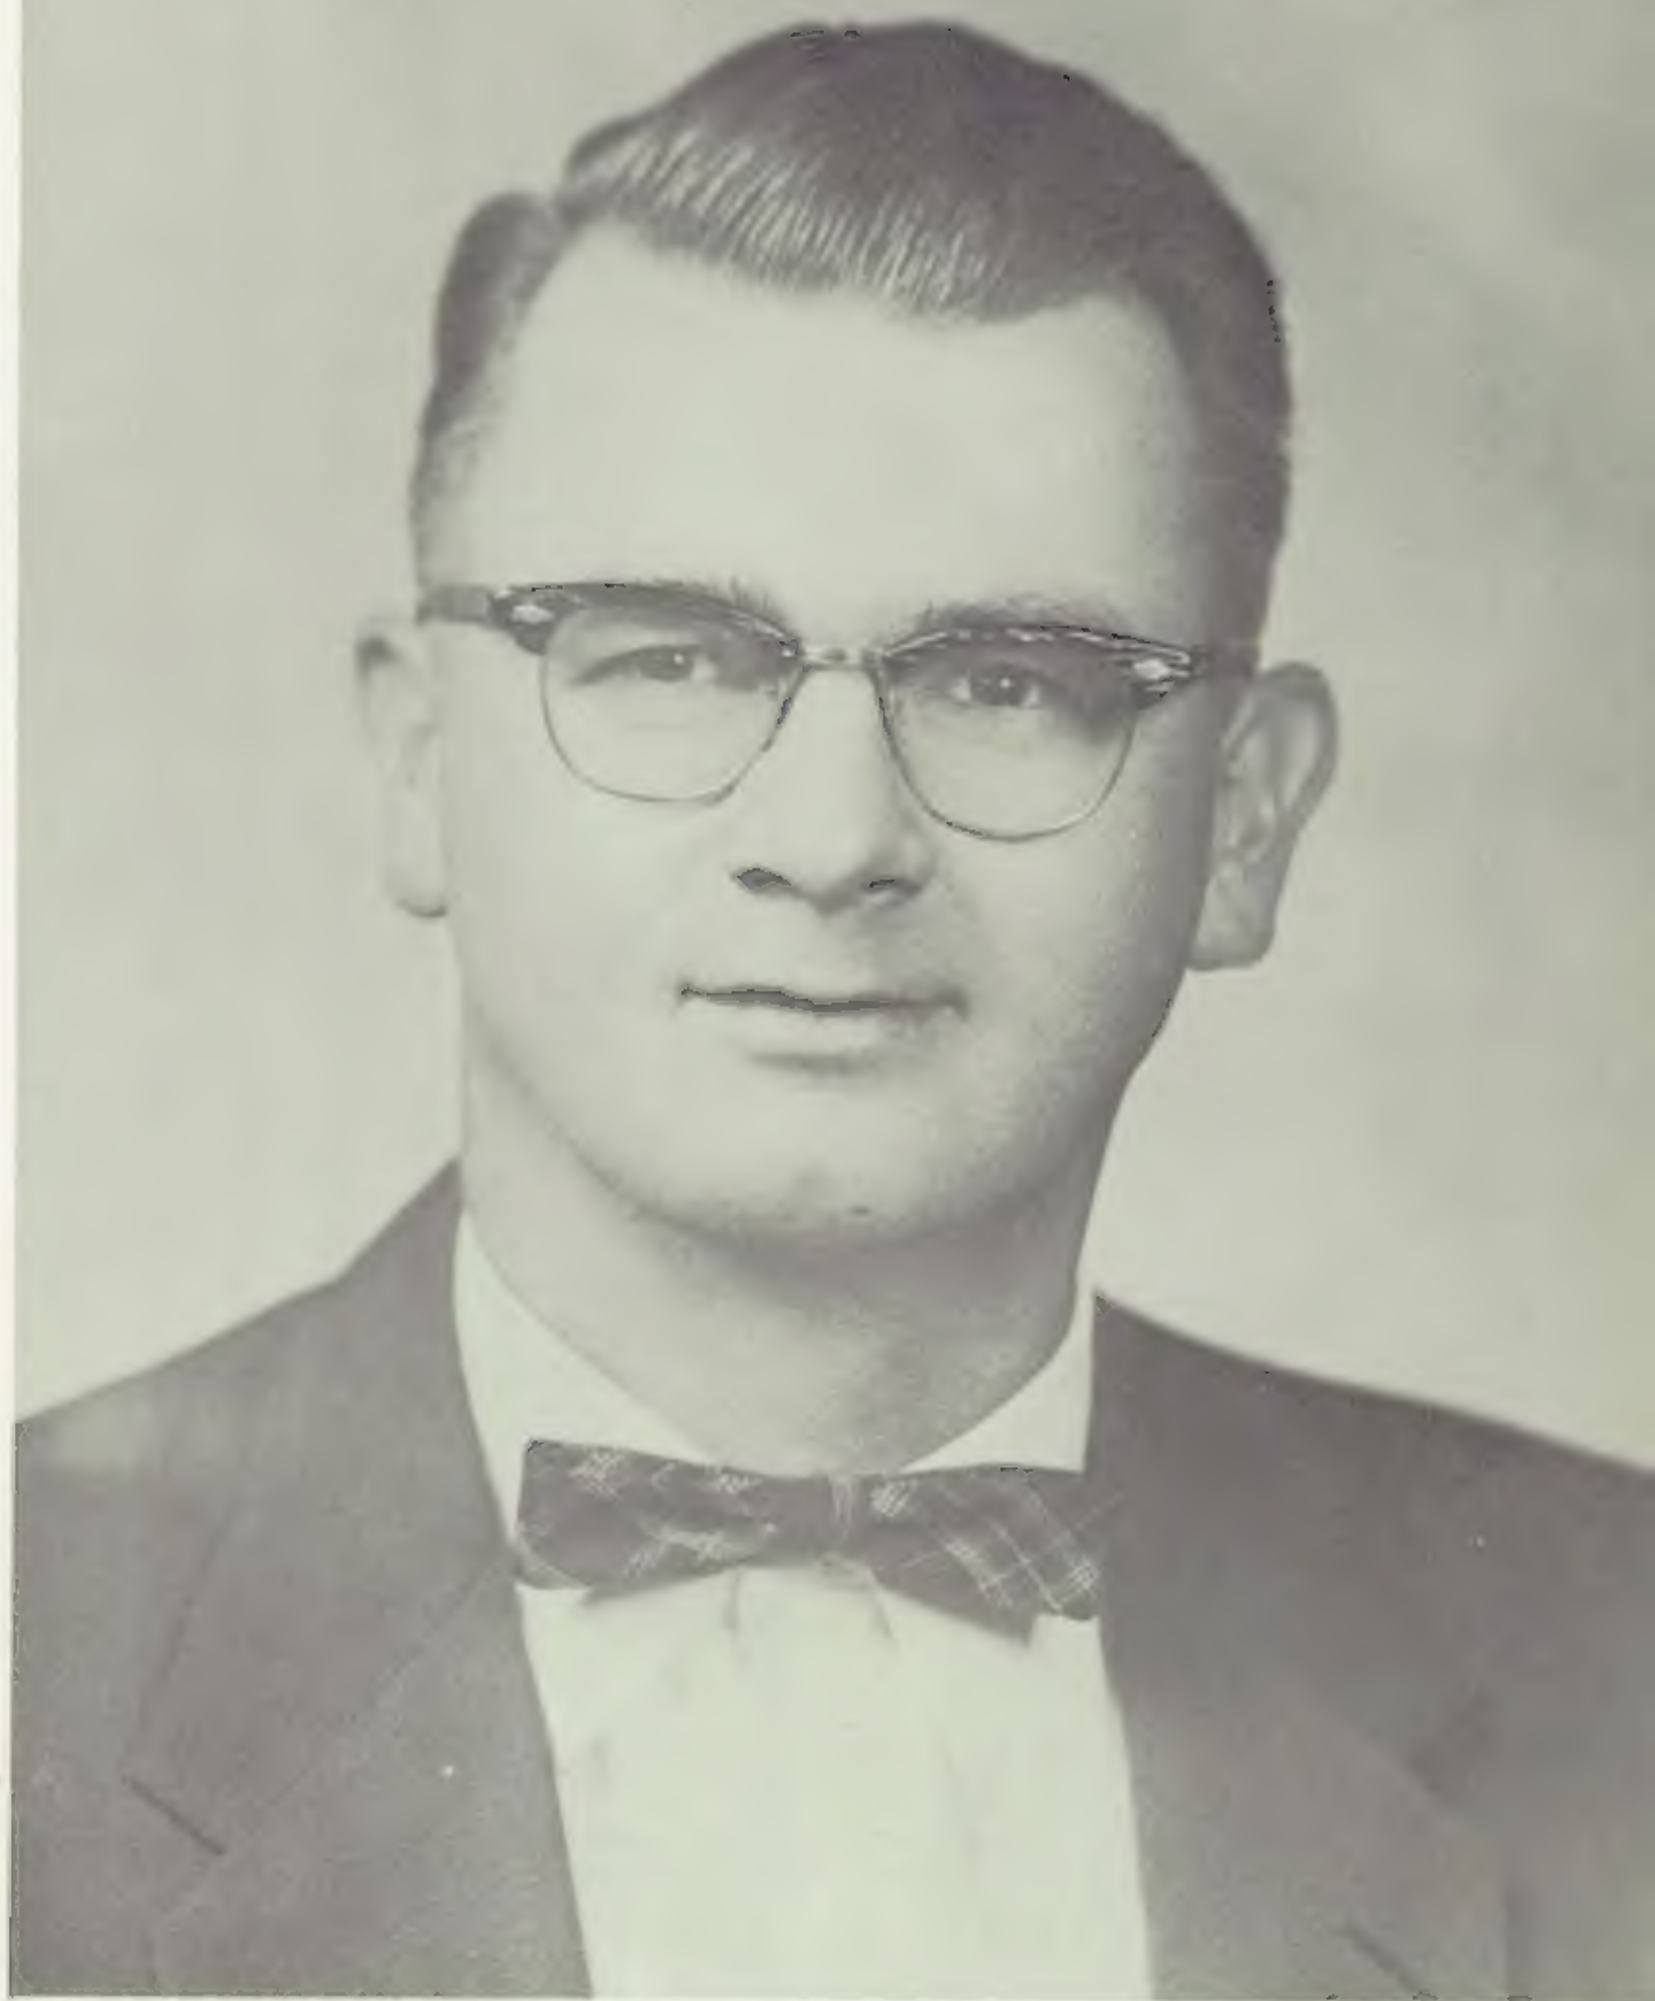

Here is your 1955 "Arrow," full of people you know, scenes you have grown to love, and most of all, memories. Every phase of school life is represented within these covers, and your annual will become more valuable to you as the years go on.

There are those of you who with these memories will walk from the doors of Molalla Union High School into the widely spread arms of the world. Again, there are those who are still to spend one, two, and even three more years of your lives in the halls of MUHS, warmed by the laughter of classmates. We are all aware that this year of happiness will be outstanding in our future years. The annual staff now presents to you with a friendly hand this volume of the "Arrow" to keep the joys of this unforgettable year fresh in your mind. We hope that you will enjoy looking through the annual as much as we have enjoyed bringing it to you.

THE EDITOR

D E D I C A T I O N

For his eight years of unceasing effort toward building the character and personality of each Molalla High student, we humbly dedicate the 1955 Arrow to Warren S. Adams, our devoted superintendent and loyal friend.

We shall always remember the part he played in preparing us for the lives we shall lead in later years. To him the students of Molalla High say "Thanks".

Molalla Indians

The name Molalla is derived from the Indian Language, probably from the Cayuse tribe, as the Molalla Indians were once part of the Cayuses. The word "Molalla" means grass country, which indicates that Molalla prairie was once a thriving pasture land. It has been said that when the Indians first came here the grass grew to be several feet high. The Indians inhabited the prairie more than a century before any white man came.

During the eighteenth century, when the Cayuses were engaged in a period of civil strife, a small band seceded. The seceded Cayuses migrated from Walla Walla to Molalla, crossing the Cascade Range just south of Mt. Jefferson, on the trail they heard about. The Wah-lamut Valley was then occupied by the Cayuses, but they made a treaty of eternal peace with the Calipooias, which gave them the right to occupy the foothills of the Cascades.

This treaty of eternal peace was never broken. The tribes of 1800 had only a tradition of these facts.

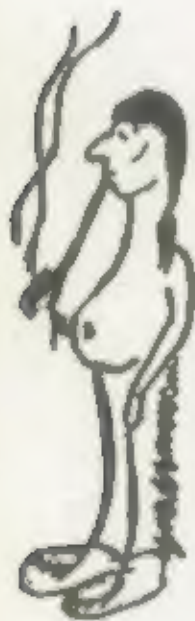

The seceded Cayuses took the name of Molalla after making this treaty. They grew and became more numerous and powerful and in general they thrived on the new land. Each generation grew up with the hatred of the Cayuse tribe so when they were at their height in power they challenged the Cayuses for a battle which was accepted at the foot of Mt. Jefferson. The Cayuses were victorious and the Molallas suffered a loss of one-half their warriors. The next generation of Molallas never entered the battlefield after their second defeat.

The Molalla tribe was quite independent and usually held its own. They always traded and gambled at The Dalles with the best tribes. Chief Henry Yelkes, the last survivor, was killed by some unknown person in 1915. His son, Fred Yelkes, a half-breed Indian, still survives and lives in Portland.

The first white man that came to this prairie was Rev. Jason Lee. He and a few followers came up the Molalla River and crossed the prairie enroute to Salem in 1837. The immigration of 1843-44-45 brought a few settlers to Molalla.

In the early days two trails were built running nearly north and south and east and west. These trails intersected at a point about eighteen miles south of Oregon City. In the course of time the north and south trail has become Molalla Avenue and the east and west trail has become Main Street. Consequently it is only natural that Molalla is situated where it is, since most of the settlers located around the intersection, called "Four Corners"

Future Farmers of America

The purpose of the FFA is to develop leadership, character, thrift, scholarship, cooperation, citizenship, and patriotism. Its members learn through participating experiences to conduct and take part in public meetings, to speak in public, to buy and sell cooperatively, and to assume civic responsibility.

The FFA is twenty-five years old here at Molalla. It has the largest membership of any chapter in the state.

The major activity this year was the drainage ditch blasted on the chapter farm. Other activities sponsored were those customary to the FFA.

The full High School Band played for all home football games; some basketball games; and the May Day festivities. It presented half the annual Christmas Program and a full Spring Band Concert. Trips were taken to Eugene, Oregon City, and Sandy. A picnic was held at Blue Lake Park in the spring.

The Pep Band played for most home basketball games; the May Day festivities; the All Sports Banquet and weekly pep-assemblies.

The Brass Ensemble played for the Grange, Odd Fellows, and Rotary meetings during the year and competed in the District Music Contest, (Rating-superior).

Larry French, Bob Boehmke, and Larry Robertson played solos in the Contest. Bob was rated superior, both Larrys were rated excellent.

The Arion Award for outstanding musicianship went to Bob Boehmke. This award is earned on a system of points for musical activities and excellence.

The team started the 1954 season with a defeat against Lake Oswego. Kenneth Naylor was elected captain. He and the other boys showed a lot of determination throughout the season.

At the opening of the W. V. L. play the team scored four touchdowns to defeat Canby 26-18. Although the statistics showed Molalla outscored their opponents, the season ended with three wins and four defeats.

Twenty-one varsity football letters were awarded by Coach Hiebert. Thirteen of the boys who played this year will be back next season.

The Molalla wrestling squad completed the season with the record of 12 wins and 2 defeats. The squad won a three-way co-championship in the W.V.L. At the state wrestling tournament Molalla scored 20 points with Tim English contributing 11 points toward the team score by winning the state championship in the 98 lb. class. Duke Ditrich placed fourth in the 148 lb. class.

This fine team record was maintained through great interest and the determination to win. The outlook for the coming year could again present a squad of which Molalla Union High School can be proud.

Varsity Basketball

Molalla ended the 1954-55 basketball season with a 16 wins-7 losses record and a firm hold on second place in the W.V.L. Molalla started fast with 6 wins in the first 7 games. A mid-season slump of 3 losses in a row hurt the team's chances of winning the league crown.

Seniors that will be mixed next year are: Ken Naylor, Jack Bye, Dennis Peebles, David Parker, and Roger Hurst.

Leading rebounder and second in total points is DeWayne Parker. Next in rebounding is Jack Bye. Leading scorer is Wally Aho, team captain.

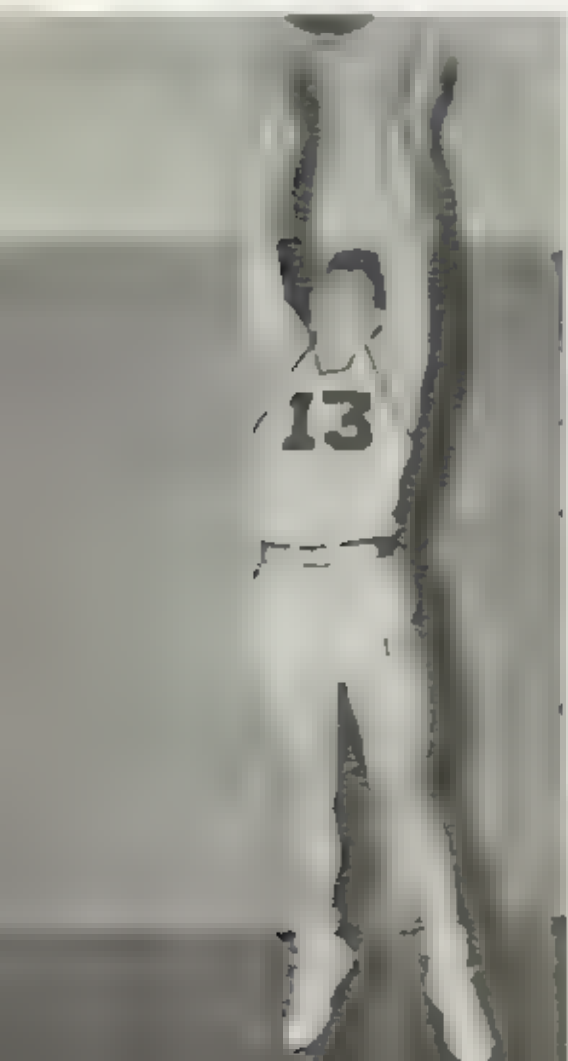

This team should provide Molalla with a very strong squad for the next basketball season. Molalla will also benefit from the best B Squad in 6 years.

COACHES

Ralph Capasso and Marvin Heibert

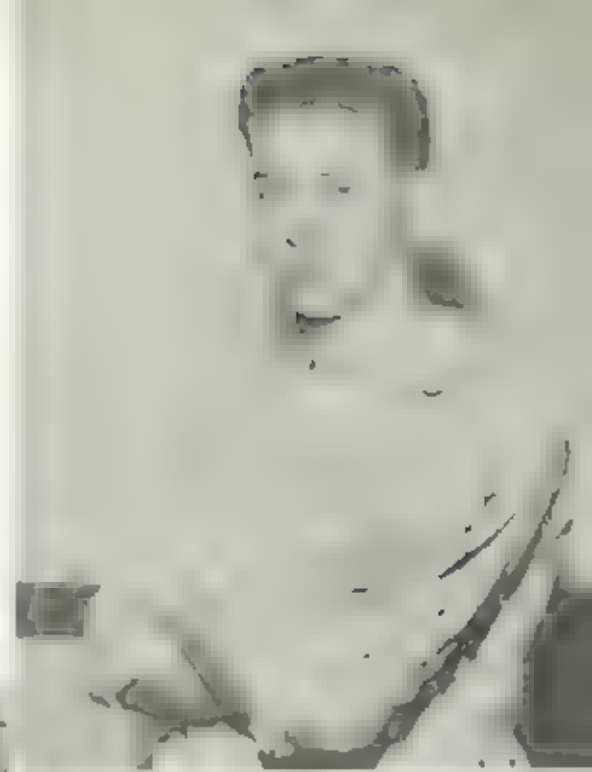

The baseball season at M. U. H. S. this year was not a good one when considering games won and lost. Lack of experience hampered the team, as only four lettermen returned and none of them were seniors. The outlook for next year shows great possibilities of being a winner, as only three regulars from this year's team will graduate.

The games played this year were all fairly close. The league winners, Mt. Angel, needed extra innings to beat Molalla. Woodburn was the only league win for the Indians.

Record Breaking Crowd Attends Senior Class Play

On November 19, 1954, the Senior Class presented the three act play, HILLBILLY WEDDIN'. It was a smash hit, with a record breaking crowd.

Paw and Maw Belsnickle are parents with a problem. Rather SIX problems—in the form of six unmarried daughters. Junev Lou, sixteen, cannot marry Homer Upschlager, the neighbor boy, until Ceelie, nineteen, and Bonnie Mae, the book worm of the family, are safely married off. Paw wants to "wing" a couple men, pick out the buckshot, and have them married to his daughters.

In the midst of Paw's husband chasing, Ronald Maxwell, a medical student, and his aunt arrive to seek temporary shelter. Bonnie Mae and Ceelie are attracted to the stranger, but two neighbors decide to start a fake feud to scare the stranger away.

Paw finally forces Ronald to the altar with Ceelie, but Bonnie Mae rescues Ronald just in time. Ceelie finds a husband who really wants her—Obeey Upschalger!

Juniors Select Recent Movie Hit as Class Play

"Mother is a Freshman" tells of the experience of Abigail Fortitude Abbott when she takes up a scholarship and becomes a Freshman at Pointer College. This scholarship gives Abby and her daughter, Susan, enough money to attend Pointer.

Susan, who is a sophomore, has a crush on Professor Michaels, the instructor of zoology. Dean Gillingham suspects Abby's coming to the college is a publicity stunt. The girls at the dorm think Abby is an old lady, but when she arrives, they discover she is soon to be their rival.

Susan is heart-broken to learn that Professor Michaels and Abby have fallen in love with each other. All ends well as Susan starts going with Bobo, a popular boy on the campus.

Student Body Play: "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay"

The play is centered around Cornelia Skinner and Emily Kimbrough, who are in a frenzy of excitement as they prepare to sail for Europe. While on ship-board they meet several people including the steward, who is bewildered by the girls' actions, and an admiral who turns out to be the leader of the ship's band, and two very charming boys who are medical students at Harvard. Just as the boat is about to dock, Cornelia gets the measles and has to be smuggled out by her three friends, Leo, Dick, and Emily. Then the girls are off to Paris. Here, they get involved with a gas meter that explodes, sleep in a bed full of bedbugs, and meet a great French actor. Cornelia's parents then come to the girls' hotel room in Paris to take them home. These are but a few of the wonderful moments in this grand comedy.
